It has been reported that Mulai Hafid is leading a rebellion in Morocco and that the Spanish government plans to protect him. Mulai Hafid became sultan of Morocco after a protracted period of instability, and his brother, Abd El Aziz, the reigning sultan, was driven from the throne by playing on the superstition and the fanaticism of the people. Mulai Hafid, who rose in rebellion, won over a large section of the Moroccans, and his army did the rest. He is a stronger minded individual than his brother, and has a more magnetic personality. He was formally proclaimed sultan, and the European powers accepted the regime. Mulai agreed to observe the treaties with other nations even to the extent of making concessions which he condemned in the execution. He ruled for awhile and then abdicated, going to Spain and France on an extensive tour.

Attention, K. of P.
Regular meeting tonight at 8 o'clock. Work in rank of Knight. Please be present.

German War Orders to Fly.
Behind the Somme Front, Sept. 20.—Scattered along the German lines in France but several miles to the rear are a succession of "Carrier Pigeon Stations" which form an effective link in the German scheme of defense, and in times of extreme stress can become well nigh invaluable. Especially is this the case when all other means of communication from the front trenches with the rear are destroyed.

In the trenches are kept cages of trained pigeons. The birds are kept constantly in practice so that in times of emergency they will go without fail to some station to give word of disaster that might have been telephoned had not the telephone connection been shot away or otherwise destroyed.

The messages are written on tiny pieces of paper, enclosed in thimble-like aluminum containers which are attached to a leg of the bird, and the fliers are released. If longer messages must be sent, or maps have to be transmitted, these are enclosed in a larger container which is attached to a sort of harness that can be put over the bird's head and fitted tight to its body.

Sendings of the flesh caused by inflammation, cold, fracture of the bone, toothache, neuritis, etc., when swollen can be relieved by applying HALLARIE'S SNOW LINIMENT. It would be well rubbed in over the part affected. Its great healing and penetrating power eases the pain, reduces swelling and restores natural condition. Price 15c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Ringer Drug Co.

New American Composed in Army London, Sept. 20.—Private Ralph Burman, who came all the way from Virginia, where he was born, to New York, very soon after the call "Your King and Country Need You" and joined the Middlesex Regiment, has developed into a writer and composer of music whose name will outlive the war.

ing met with great success. It was called "The Soul of the Empire," and has since been sung wherever soldiers are encamped. Recently, however, he has completed another piece, called "The Prayer of the World," which was immediately adopted as an army hymn and is sung at most church parades and religious services of the troops.

First Style Show.

Marietta, Okla., Sept. 21.—The first annual style show held in Marietta opened last night at the airdrome. An elaborate entertainment was given by the Westheimer company, all ladies who attended being given a beautiful souvenir. Special feature reels were shown during the evening and living models demonstrated the effect of the latest tailored costumes. Music was furnished last evening by the Marietta high school orchestra. Archie Roosevelt Has Job.

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 21.—Archibald Bulloch Roosevelt of Oyster Bay, L. I., recently of Cleverton Hall, Cambridge, third son of former President Roosevelt, and a graduate of Harvard college with this year's class, will next month matriculate at the Bigelow Carpet company mills at Thompsonville, Conn., as a wool sorter at $15 a week.

Archie, refusing more promising offers for work, has chosen a job similar to one held by his older brother, Theodore Jr. His plan to acquaint himself with all the branches of the carpetmaking trade. His first job will be that of sorting wool, but Archie believes that Roosevelt energy will aid him quickly to move into higher branches of the industry, where the remuneration is greater.

For three years the greater part of the American army has been on the Mexican border. The army has been put to the severest tests ever put upon soldiers. It has had a wailing wall. It is easy to be a soldier when there is nothing difficult when there is nothing. While we have heard criticism and complaints from other sources I want to say that there has never been a word of complaint relative to conditions or service from any member of the regular army.

DIRECTORS
OF COMMERCE

WILL MEET THIS AFTERNOON
FOR THE PURPOSE OF DISCUSSING
SEVERAL MATTERS OF VITAL IMPORTANCE TO CITY.

The recently elected officers of the Chamber of Commerce are in session this afternoon organizing and planning for the coming year in development work for the promotion of Ardmore.

The meeting is being attended by every one of the new officers except the two or three who are out of the city.

President S. A. Apple called the directors together and just before the meeting said: "This is our first meeting. We are going to discuss matters in general for the good of the city and community. I feel that there are three matters of importance which need immediate action. First: the union depot; second, good roads, and last, but not least, a musical organization for Ardmore. We need a band and the sooner we commence working out the problem how to get one, the better. I believe we are going to start out right and that activity along every line of enterprise which goes to build a great city will continue and increase as never before in the history of the city. The meeting this afternoon is the first held by the new officers and the absolute pressing needs of the city will be taken up."

SECRETARY OF WAR BAKER SAYS
ARMY FOR PEACE

SECRETARY OF WAR BAKER DE-CLARES SOLDIERS OF UNITED STATES ARE BRAVE BUT NOT BLOODTHIRSTY.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 21.—Secretary of War Baker in an address before the Business Men's League here today said that as secretary of war he had discovered that the army does not desire war.

"As a civilian," he said, "I believed that a standing army was a menace to free institutions and that the professional soldiers desired war. But I want to make a confession to you. I have found that as secretary of war that the entire army of the United States from the commanding general to the last enlisted private does not desire war. I know of no body of men who have a more singular devotion to duty than the army and no body of men who would be more willing to lay down their lives for their country.

Army Loves Peace.

"The army will respond and wants to be able to respond efficiently to every demand made upon it. It is a lover and conservator of peace and efficiency.

"For three years the greater part of the American army has been on the Mexican border. The army has been put to the severest tests ever put upon soldiers. It has had a wailing wall. It is easy to be a soldier when there is nothing difficult when there is nothing. While we have heard criticism and complaints from other sources I want to say that there has never been a word of complaint relative to conditions or service from any member of the regular army.

Militia Move Successful.

The militia was mobilized on the border, a distance of 1,000 miles, twice the distance from St. Louis to New York, with great success and efficiency. Notwithstanding the fact that the men came from all walks of life and are doing service in a strange climate, the efficiency is such that the sick report is less than 2 per cent—1 per cent less than that of the regular army.

The time has come when there must be power on the part of the government to move all the forces of the country for the common defense.

Confederate Drum Restored.
